Forecast For London & Southeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Sunday 22 Aug 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Largely dry and fine through the next few days.

This Evening and Tonight:
Any lingering daytime showers slowly dying out to leave a dry second half of the night, with developing clear spells perhaps allowing a few fog patches to form inland. Becoming breezy near southeastern coasts. Minimum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Monday:
A rather cloudy start for many, but tending to brighten up through the day, with decent warm sunny spells developing more widely during the afternoon. Breezy near southeastern coasts. Maximum temperature 24 deg C (75 deg F).

Outlook for Tuesday to Thursday:
On the cool side, but overall drier and much more settled through this period. Some sunny spells on Tuesday and Wednesday, but cloudier Thursday with some light rain possible.
